

28 June	Assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand , the heir to the Austrian throne in Sarajevo. He was shot by a Serb terrorist, Gavrilo Princip
5 July	The "Blank Cheque" : Kaiser William II of Germany promised to support Austria whatever line she took against Serbia
23 July	The Austrian ultimatum to Serbia : Austria presented Serbia with a list of demands and gave her just 48 hours to reply. Serbia agreed to all of the Austrian demands except one
28 July	Austria declared War on Serbia : Austria rejected the Serbian reply and declared war
29 July	The Austrians shelled Belgrade , the capital of Serbia
30 July	Russia ordered her army to mobilise (get ready for war) against Austria . Germany and Austria were alarmed. The crisis escalated. British attempts at mediation failed
31 July	The German ultimatum to Russia : Germany presented an ultimatum to Russia to halt her mobilisation within 12 hours
1 August	Germany declared war on Russia
1 August	France ordered her army to mobilise (get ready for war) against Germany : Because Germany's war plan was based on knocking France out, then attacking Russia
3 August	Germany declared war on France and sent troops through Belgium
4 August	Britain declared war on Germany for invading neutral Belgium

28 June	Assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand , the heir to the Austrian throne in Sarajevo. He was shot by a Serb terrorist, Gavrilo Princip
5 July	The "Blank Cheque" : Kaiser William II of Germany promised to support Austria whatever line she took against Serbia
23 July	The Austrian ultimatum to Serbia : Austria presented Serbia with a list of demands and gave her just 48 hours to reply. Serbia agreed to all of the Austrian demands except one
28 July	Austria declared War on Serbia : Austria rejected the Serbian reply and declared war
29 July	The Austrians shelled Belgrade , the capital of Serbia
30 July	Russia ordered her army to mobilise (get ready for war) against Austria . Germany and Austria were alarmed. The crisis escalated. British attempts at mediation failed
31 July	The German ultimatum to Russia : Germany presented an ultimatum to Russia to halt her mobilisation within 12 hours
1 August	Germany declared war on Russia
1 August	France ordered her army to mobilise (get ready for war) against Germany : Because Germany's war plan was based on knocking France out, then attacking Russia
3 August	Germany declared war on France and sent troops through Belgium
4 August	Britain declared war on Germany for invading neutral Belgium